

EDINBURGH INTERNATIONAL FILM AUDIENCES CONFERENCE

IS THE AUDIENCE EVER WRONG?
EXPLORING THE WORLDS OF FILM AUDIENCES.

THE FILMHOUSE, LOTHIAN ROAD, EDINBURGH.
MARCH 26-27, 2009

EIFAC is a bi-annual conference concerned with film audience research. It aims to provide a space where film audience researchers and others can come together to present completed work and discuss on-going as well as future work.

A pass for both days costs £160 (£85 for students) and a pass for one day costs £85.

CONFIRMED SPEAKERS

- Ian Christie, from the School of Art, Film and Visual Media, Birkbeck, University of London.
- Professor Martin Barker, Professor of Film and Television Studies, Aberystwyth University
- Dr. Emily Munro, Head of Learning, Glasgow Film Theatre.
- Professor Robin McPherson, Screen Academy, Napier University.
- Dr. Sean Perkins, Research Executive at the UK Film Council

For more information, contact:
Dr. Ailsa Hollinshead
ailsa@filmaudiencesconference.co.uk

A Skillset Screen Academy™

WWW.FILMAUDIENCESCONFERENCE.CO.UK